JOHNNY DC SAYS: LET THE MAIL BEGIN:

Welcome back to the page that's packed with action — and you're the ones sending in the wild drawings and ideas! I'm Johnny DC, your pal in the pilot's seat. That's me at the top of the page.

Dear Johnny DC,

I love to read comics and draw my own. I want to draw comic books when I grow up. I hope you like my super hero.

Kelcey Jerauld, age 8
Florence, Kentucky

You've come to the right place, Kelcey! Many famous comic book artists sent letters when they were younger and got their names printed for the first time in a page like this!
— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY KELCEY JERAULD

Michael Stethem, from Columbia, Missouri, drew another hero in a cape. Rozak has the powers of flight and energy blasts.

DRAWING BY MICHAEL STETHEM

Dear Johnny DC,

This girl is my creation. Her name is Helen. She is very smart. Her favorite color is orange. She loves to read long books. She loves to swim.

Her powers are that she can do anything she wants. She lives on the planet Earth.

Helen Davison, age 9
Peachtree City, Georgia

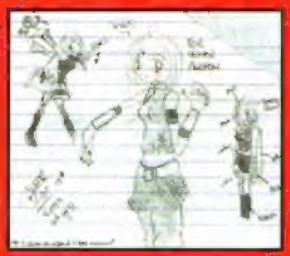
Her powers are that she can do anything she wants? Not bad!
— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY HELEN DAVISON

Larry Powe Jr. from Miami drew the next hero. He dedicated the drawing to a lost friend, named Andy Warner, who drew it with him.

DRAWING BY LARRY POWE, JR.

Fae Juniper Ivy Avalon, from Federal Way, Washington sent a drawing of herself and some caped characters. She called it a "super fast sketch" and also wrote, "I can do 'way better if I take more time!" (So why doesn't she?) She also added a note that, "Cheese is good!" (Like I didn't know that!)



DRAWING BY FAE (FELICITY) AVALON, AGE 13

Keep sending in your drawings! I like letters, too. What do you think of CARTOON NETWORK ACTION PACK? What are your favorite cartoons and characters? Are we getting them right in our stories?

Fern Van Vliet, from Phoenix, Arizona got me right. Here's her drawing of me, looking super cool. (See the sunglasses? That's how you can tell.) See you next month!
